From the Desk of the Superintendent

The 2023 legislative session kicked off in early January as they began the long 90-day session. As we transition into the 108th Legislative session for the state of Nebraska, our lawmakers are will be dealing with a situation that rarely do we see in any walk of life – an excess of cash. The estimated budget reserves are already at the recommended levels, yet the revenue forecasts are showing $1.9 billion in surplus revenues.

My hope is that some of that money is injected into the PK-12 education system, allowing for some property tax relief. While many do not think we receive state aid, we do for special education reimbursements and option enrollment. Like many (158 of the 244 schools in NE), we do NOT receive any equalization aid since our resources (property valuation) outweigh our needs according to the TEEOSA formula. Due to this funding mechanism, Nebraska ranks 49th in the country with regard to state contribution to K-12 education. Because of the lack of state money invested into education, Nebraska also ranks 7th in the nation for reliance on local property taxes. Here at Lakeview, since we are not able to receive any type of 'equalization aid' from our state, our property owners are forced to shoulder a large majority of the financial needs of our school district.

The typical rhetoric from politicians will say that high property taxes directly result from local schools' overspending. But like most simple statements, there is a lot more to the story! Nebraska schools have averaged a 3.09% increase per year to their general fund over the last ten years (compared to a 3.26% increase in state government spending). Lakeview has outperformed that by averaging just a 2.66% spending increase per year over the last decade despite our student population increasing almost 30%. That is a 2.66% increase despite rising insurance rates, wages, electric costs, fuel costs, and transportation costs.

You will be seeing some articles in local and state newspapers about this very topic over the next several months. Please know Lakeview is not sitting back and lacking engagement on the topic. This includes representing Lakeview on the newly formed School Finance Reform Committee appointed by Governor Pillen. We work hard through our various organizations to improve education and its funding. We want to be on the front lines trying to do what is best for our students, school, and patrons.

Hands-On Learning

By: Mrs. Frenzen - 3rd Grade

Providing opportunities for students to do hands-on activities throughout the school day is beneficial to learning. These activities are engaging, where all students are able to show their learning versus just one or two students answering the teacher's questions. They are fun, create critical thinking, enhance teamwork and help students retain information better.

In 3F the students are doing hands-on learning on their own or in groups as much as possible. Finding these activities and opportunities can often take more time than finding a worksheet but is so much more important!

What is Math Anxiety?

By: Brittany Niedbalski - Special Education Teacher

Does your child often avoid math homework or get easily frustrated when trying to solve mathematical problems? Do you as a parent feel frustrated or overwhelmed with helping your student with math? The cause of the math stress is often math anxiety. Math anxiety includes an extreme negative physical, emotion, and cognitive reaction to math that hinders a person's ability to learn and perform math activities. Students as young as five years old can experience math anxiety, this not only affects standardized testing, and school exams but also affects a student's ability to learn new math concepts. Math anxiety can also affect other areas of a student's or adult's life, it can impact the career choice a person makes, and it can affect their financial and personal choices due to avoidance of using math.

What can we do to help a student with math anxiety?

If we notice our child is experiencing math anxiety, we can increase our knowledge in math and not show anxiety towards math or a negative attitude towards math. Find math apps to help our child increase their confidence in math and increase his/her skills in math as an app is not judgemental and cannot react to a student's behavior towards math. Praise your child when he or she has math success and remind him/her of their past math success to boost self-confidence. Talk to your child's teacher about what you are seeing and experiencing at home, he/she may be seeing the same things at school and you can work together to make a plan to help your child be successful at home and school.

In & Around Platte Center

All grade levels participated in different agricultural activities with Brooke from Nebraska Agriculture in the Classroom. Students learned about agriculture through fun, hands-on activities involving farming, animals, and corn.

In & Around Platte Center

Platte Center Parent Teacher Organization invited Santa to come visit Afternoon Preschool through 3rd grade students. He passed out reindeer food to each of the students to sprinkle on their lawns on Christmas Eve for Santa's reindeer!

Platte Center students made Christmas gifts for their parents. The students created snowman door hangers out of pizza pans.

In & Around Platte Center

Lakeview High School Business Leadership class organized a great event called "Project Good Day" for students in kindergarten through 3rd grade. The high school students taught our elementary students board games and provided students opportunities to go through a blow up obstacle course. Fun was had by all!

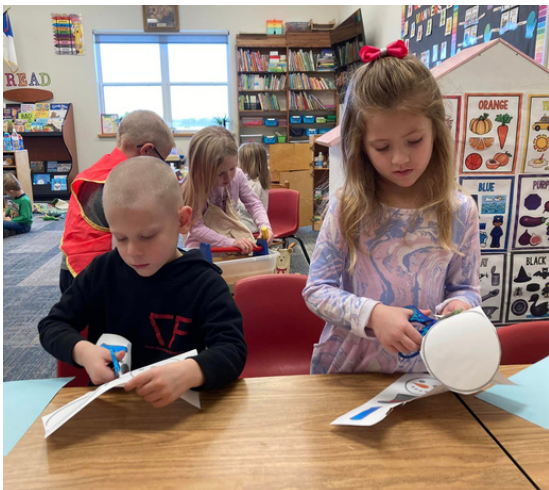

In & Around Christ Lutheran School

The 2nd Semester started out with a snow day and boy have the students at CLS been enjoying playing in it at recesses. Being bundled up nearly unable to move sure is fun!!

The snow fit well with the Preschool January theme: Winter. They read 5 Little Snowmen, worked on zipping (all those snow clothes), and showing self-control (not throwing snowballs right at someone). Academically they continue to work on their letters, numbers, shapes, and colors. Social skills they worked on were controlling their voice volume and using words to resolve conflicts.

First and second graders had fun learning about money in their very own grocery store called "Hi Dolphin." The children brought items, organized them, and helped set up the store. Then they got to make purchases using their dimes, nickels, and pennies. What a fun way to learn about money!! They also continue to enjoy learning about their class pet, Lark, an adopted calf. They just recently found out that she has grown 3" and no longer lives in her own little hut, but is now in group housing. She drinks a gallon of milk a day!

In & Around Christ Lutheran School

The third and fourth graders are still enjoying the adopted bearded dragon, Sky. Since her arrival in September, the students have predicted and measured Sky every Monday. The students have learned that she grows $\frac{1}{2}$ "each week. She has grown from $7\frac{1}{4}$ " to $14\frac{1}{2}$ ". On another note about animals, students wrote and designed a Christmas dog story on Story Jumper. They read their stories to Eden the comfort dog when he visited.

The fifth-seventh graders learned what it is like to be business owner through the Market Day Project. Each student had to create their own business, market this business, and provide a service or product for students, parents, and congregational members to purchase. They used their Math skills to total their profits and calculate their taxes. Students were allowed to keep the tax money but the rest was donated back to the school. Items the entrepreneurs made were candles, cards, and cocoa mix;; a diner that sold mac and cheese, biscuits and gravy, and desserts; Christmas ornaments; cookies, brownies, hot cocoa, and strawberry lemonade; and Christian bookmarks and cards. Services provided were how to cast a fishing pole; hammering nails; and hair and nails. They also continue to enjoy leading the Childcare kiddos in a Chapel lesson once a month.

Our FRED bag started making an appearance again at our Chapels. Our items so far were a family dog (picture). This dog was rescued and brought back to good health by the Splittgerber family. They cared for it and loved it. That is like what God does for us. He rescues us from our unhealthy (sinful) nature, forgives us, and loves us. The Wilke family put a rainbow (picture) in the FRED bag. A rainbow reminds us that God keeps His promises to us.

The last week of January was Lutheran Schools Week. The whole school sang in church, a book fair was held, everyone enjoyed pancakes at the 50th Annual Pancake Feed, and of course, all had fun dressing silly. Each day was centered around a kind of candy. Monday was "Rolo" over and Get Out of Bed so students wore pajamas. Tuesday was "Nerds" and "Smarties" Day where students dressed like nerds. Wednesday was "Red, White, and Blue Popsicle" Day so students dressed in patriotic wear. Thursday was "100,000 Dollar" Day where students dressed like a rich person, and Friday was "Catch the Rainbow" Skittles Day where students wore bright colors. We thank God for the gift of our Lutheran school where we can learn about Jesus and all He's done for us.

In & Around St. John's School

St. John's/Christ Lutheran boys and girls basketball season started on January 10th, where we packed the gym. Thanks to the coaches, refs, and parents, and your support!

The Big Room's Outdoor Education Trip to Camp Omega in Minnesota was on January 23-25th. Pastor Brad Birtell and Miss Warneke accompanied the students on this dynamic winter trip.

In & Around St. John's School

Lutheran Schools' Week was celebrated January 23-27th - a week of celebrating God's love with each other in school - with a theme of "Making Disciples for Christ". We ended our celebration with a pancake feed on Sunday. Students enjoyed these special days: Make it Comfy Monday (yummy breakfast and P.J. day), Too Old Tuesday (celebrate seniors), Wacked out Wednesday (dressing crazy and creative), That's an Ugly Sweater Thursday (it's not just for Christmas), and For Our School Friday (our school spirit day), which included our annual trip to the bowling alley.

The K-8 students continue to excel in their studies, with all students reaching the honor roll or high honor roll! They have enjoyed special projects in Social Studies, experimenting with earth science, becoming proficient in Math through IXL, and meeting important AR goals. The Preschool children finished the alphabet and are now working with numbers 1-10. They've been test-telling Miss Ruth all the letters and sounds, writing their names, and counting. We've learned from the Bible that Jesus has the power over sin, death, and the devil. We will live forever in heaven with Jesus because Jesus has won the victory for us!

The students have started work on their 2023 School Musical which will be presented Thursday, March 2, and Sunday, March 5th.
